

Language Access Card

Any person who does not speak English well has the right, under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, to interpretation assistance in their own language free of charge. This card will help service providers to identify a person's language before calling an interpreter for assistance.

Cut out the card below, or take a photo with your phone, and use it to request assistance in your language to receive services. This card is not required to receive services.

Use this card for:

Hospitals and health clinics

Public assistance programs

Public services
(Water, trash, electric)

Social services organizations

Public schools and universities

Public transportation

Emergency and non-emergency services

Cut out this card and keep it with you at all times.
