A Neighborhood Watch - Getting Started -

Overview

Neighborhood Watch, Block Watch, Town Watch, Building Watch, Crime Watch what-ever the name, it's one of the most effective and least costly ways to prevent crime and reduce fear

Neighborhood Watch fights the isolation that crime both creates and feeds upon. It forges bonds among area residents, helps reduce burglaries and robberies, and improves relations between police and the communities they serve.

Why Neighborhood Watch?

It works. Throughout the country, dramatic decreases in burglary and related offenses are reported by law enforcement professionals in communities with active Neighborhood Watch programs.

Today's transient society produces communities that are less personal. Many families have two working parents and children involved in many activities that keep them away from home. An empty house in a neighborhood where none of the neighbors know the owner is a prime target for burglary.

Neighborhood Watch also helps build pride and serves as a springboard for efforts that address other community concerns such as recreation for youth, child care, and affordable housing.

How does a Neighborhood Watch start?

A motivated individual and a few concerned residents:

1. Organize a small planning committee of neighbors to discuss needs, the level of interest, and possible community problems.
2. Contact the Police Department for help in training members in home security and reporting skills and for information on local crime patterns.
3. Hold an initial meeting to gauge neighbors interest; establish the purpose of the program and begin to identify issues that need to be addressed.
4. Ask for block captain volunteers who are responsible for relaying information to members.
5. Recruit members, keeping up-to-date information on new residents and making special efforts to involve the elderly, working parents, and young people.
6. Work with Roanoke Police and Neighborhood Services to install Neighborhood Watch signs.

Who can be involved?

Any community resident can join: young, old, single and married, renter and homeowner. Even the busiest of people can belong to a Neighborhood Watch. They too can keep an eye out for their neighbors as they come and go.

I live in an apartment. Can I start a Neighborhood Watch?

Yes, Watch Groups can be formed by anyone.

What does a Neighborhood Watch do?

A Neighborhood Watch is neighbors helping neighbors. They are extra eyes and ears for reporting crime and helping neighbors.

Members meet their neighbors, learn how to make their homes more secure, watch out for each other and their neighborhood, and report activities that raise their suspicions to the Roanoke Police.

As neighbors begin to meet neighbors, they begin to care about one another, and in turn, look out for one another...

What are the major components of a Watch Program?

1. Meetings. These should be set up on a regular basis such as bi-monthly, monthly, or six times a year.

2. Citizens / Community Patrol. A citizens patrol is made up of volunteers who walk or drive through the community and alert police to crime and questionable activities. Not all neighborhood watches need a citizens patrol.

3. Communications. These can be as simple as a weekly flier posted on community bulletin boards.

4. Special events. These are crucial to keep the program going and growing. Host talks or seminars that focus on current issues such as "hate" or bias motivated violence, crime in schools, teenage alcohol and other drug abuse, or domestic violence. Adopt a park or school playground and paint over graffiti. Sponsor a block party, holiday dinner, a volleyball or softball game which will provide neighbors a chance to get to know each other.

5. Addressing other aspects of community safety. For instance, start a block parent program to help children in emergency situations.
